

Let's play Scattergories!

Players	2+
Time	5 - 10 mins
Aim	To come up with as many answers as you can. Whoever has the most points wins!

Print and cut out the letters and categories.

Place the letters in one bowl, and the categories in another.

Grab a blank piece of paper for each player to write their answers on.

Each round one player pulls out a letter and category from each bowl.

All players have 1 minute to write as many answers corresponding to the letter provided (e.g. a famous chef starting with G could be Guy Grossi).

At the end of the round, count up how many answers each player has and add a point for each answer to their tally.

Go around until everyone has had a turn to pick out a letter and category, or keep playing until you run out of categories!
