What dish or food instantly takes you back to your childhood?

Tell me more about it and how it's prepared?

Is there a dish you love that combines elements from different cultures?

How did you discover it?

Do you have a favourite comfort food that always reminds you of home, regardless of where home is?

Do you have any family recipes that have been passed down through generations?

What's the story behind them?

What is a food from your culture that's perfect for sharing at a big gathering?

Is there a dish you have tried while travelling that you wish was more common at home?

If you could teach everyone here to cook one recipe from your cultural background, what would it be?

What is a local food tradition from your home town or city that you would love others to experience?

What's your favourite traditional dish from your cultural background?

Tell me more about it and how it's prepared?

What is a food related tradition or custom from another culture that you have adopted or admire?

What is a food you grew up eating that people might be surprised by?

How was the experience?

If you could eat your way around one country in a month, where would you go?

Share a story about a food that you didn't like initially but eventually grew to love?

What is a snack or street food from another country that you think everyone should try at least once?

What is one food you think tastes much better homemade than bought?

If you could invite three famous people to a dinner party, who would they be and what would you serve them?